

UMBERTO CICERI

Umberto Ciceri

Nato a Legnano(Mi), artista e ricercatore, vive e lavora tra Barcellona e Bologna. La sua pratica si concentra su studi di carattere neuroestetico, percettivo e cromatico attorno l'ottica, la struttura chimica dei colori e dei processi neurofisiologici di ricezione delle immagini.

La forma del ritmo presso il Museo MA*GA (2022-2023) è la sua prima mostra personale istituzionale presso un museo italiano, inaugurata in occasione della diciottesima giornata del contemporaneo promossa da AMACI.

Tra le istituzioni che hanno ospitato il suo lavoro si ricordano inoltre la Kunstverein Friedberg (Identities, 2020), il Museo Marino Marini (Ex Voto, 2019), la Reggia di Caserta (Human Fights Rights Lights, 2019), il Teatros del Canal, Madrid (Human, 2017), il Museo Nazionale del Bargello (E dell'Arno alto tesoro, 2013) e l'Istituto Italiano di Cultura di Hong Kong (Andante, 2013).

Ha partecipato inoltre a eventi internazionali quali Artefiera; Artverona; Miart, Milano; Scope New York; Fotografia Europea, Reggio Emilia; ArtMiami, Miami; Context Art Miami, Miami; Luxemburg Art Week; Art Karlsruhe.

Dopo essersi diplomato presso il Liceo Artistico a Varese e l'Istituto Marangoni a Milano, come textile designer, creative consultant e stilista ha lavorato con celebri brand tra i quali Gucci, Versace, Comme des Garçon, Dries Van Noten e Moschino.

Artist and researcher born in Legnano(Mi), he lives and works between Barcelona and Bologna. His practice focuses on neuroaesthetical, perceptual and chromatic studies on optics, and on the chemical structure of colours and of the neurophysiological processes of image reception.

La forma del ritmo at the MA*GA Museum (2022) is his first institutional solo exhibition hosted at an Italian museum and opened on occasion of the eighteenth Giornata del Contemporaneo "Contemporary Art Day" promoted by AMACI.

His work has been showcased at the following institutions, among others: Kunstverein Friedberg (Identities, 2020), Museo Marino Marini (Ex Voto, 2019), Reggia di Caserta (Human Fights Rights Lights, 2019), Teatros del Canal, Madrid (Human, 2017), Museo Nazionale del Bargello, Florence (E dell'Arno alto tesoro, 2013), and the Italian Cultural Institute of Hong Kong (Andante, 2013).

He also took part in international events, such as: Artefiera; Artverona; MI Art, Milano; Scope, New York; Fotografia Europea, Reggio Emilia; ArtMiami, Miami; ContextArt Miami, Miami; Luxemburg Art Week; Art Karlsruhe

After graduating at Varese's arts high school and at the Istituto Marangoni in Milan, he worked as a textile designer, creative consultant and fashion designer with famous brands such as Gucci, Versace, Comme des Garçon, Dries Van Noten, and Moschino.
